

Get more money back from the IRS!

If your family earned less than $51,567 last year, you may qualify for over $6,000 in credit or cash back from the IRS through the Earned Income Tax Credit - or EITC.

You can qualify even if you don't owe taxes, but you must file a tax return to receive a payment. Here are the basics:

Qualifying Children	For Single/Head of Household or Qualifying Widow(er), Income Under	For Married Filing Jointly, Income Must be Less Than	You May Receive Up to
No Child	$14,340	$19,680	$487
One Child	$37,870	$43,210	$3,250
Two Children	$43,038	$48,378	$5,372
Three or More	$46,227	$51,567	$6,044

Eligibility is based on several factors, but 4 out of 5 people who apply will receive credit. Use the IRS's online EITC Assistant at www.irs.gov/eitc to see if you qualify. (A Spanish version is available.)

You earned it. Now file, claim it and get it.
